Procedure:

Investors are required to make their investment within three months of entering the country. To secure a visa through the Investor Visa Program, investors must acquire residential real estate in Italy either through purchase or rental after receiving approval. For the Elective Residence Program, applicants need to showcase a steady income and possess residential real estate upon approval. The visa is initially granted for a two-year period and can be extended for an additional three years, subject to the condition that the investment is upheld.

Minimum Capital Requirement

EUR 250,000 – EUR 2,000,000

Processing Time

3-4 months
