

Montenegro

Residence Program

Located in Southeastern Europe on the Balkan Peninsula, Montenegro has gained recognition not only as a sought-after luxury destination but also as a region brimming with vibrant investment opportunities. This secure and steady nation has emerged as an economic center for contemporary resorts, actively progressing towards establishing a free-market economy. Approved applicants not only gain entry into the European market but also obtain European residency. Moreover, Montenegro holds the status of an official candidate country for European Union membership.
